Last week, we read of seven plagues. In this morning's Torah portion, Parashat Bo, we learn of the remaining three. The devastation of the remaining plagues finally forces Pharaoh to relent; the Israelites are at last free. In anticipation of their leaving, they celebrate their first Passover. That celebration, while still in Egypt, will end up shaping our annual celebration of that blessed day for generations to come.

Join us today for Kiddush sponsored by Elizabeth and Jonathan Saven in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Liam. Mazel Tov to the entire Saven family. Happy birthday to all those celebrating with us today. Sponsor a Kiddush lunch to honor a special event or person in your life, celebrate an accomplishment, or for no special reason at all. It's a mitzvah that benefits you and your KM community. Call the KM office to reserve a date.
