Seven of the ten plagues appear in this morning's Torah reading. Some of which include the "pleasantries" of: blood, frogs, lice, insects, and inflammation. The first three plagues are a contest with Egypt's magicians that ends with their defeat, orchestrated by the mere "finger of God." Stay tuned!

Join us today for Kiddush sponsored by Marsha and Forrest Latiner in memory of Henry Latiner, Forrest's father, and by Marion and Charley Goldsmith in memory of Gabriel Rosenthal, Marian's father, and Hannah Goldsmith Charley's mother. Kiddush lunch is a tradition of warmth, friendship, and love of Shabbat, one which we depend on the generosity of members to support. To sponsor, just call the office.
