This week's Torah portion, T'rumah, is an architect's dream. The Tabernacle, or Mishkon - "Dwelling", is described in great detail. Forty-five feet long, thirty-six feet high, and fifteen feet wide, at the rear of which was the Holy of Holies. God dwelled in the Tabernacle, but as our tradition has taught repeatedly, God is metaphysical, i.e., above the physical. God dwells wherever we are willing to let Him in, be it in our homes, offices, or most importantly, our hearts.

Join us today for Kiddush sponsored by the Gottlieb family and KM, in honor of Rabbi Michael Gottlieb's 60th birthday. Happy birthday Rabbi Gottlieb and Happy February birthdays for all those celebrating with us today. Kiddush lunch is a tradition of warmth, friendship, and love of Shabbat, one which we depend on the generosity of members to support. To sponsor, call the KM office.
