This morning's Torah reading, commemorating the last day of Passover, includes rules on how to behave once permanently settled in our Holy Land. The laws vary from giving Tzedakah, to the proper treatment of laborers. Above all, the reading reminds us that God freed us from Egyptian slavery. By reminding us of our past, a Jewish nation born out of slavery, we can become more sensitive to the plight of others-especially once settled in our God-given Promised Land.

We welcome you to join us after services today for Kiddush sponsored by Eileen and Lew Goldberg and Carole and Sid Meltzner in honor of Eileen and Carole's birthdays. We also wish a Happy Anniversary to all those celebrating with us today.
