Of all the verses in the Bible, the verse “Love your neighbor as yourself, I am God” (Lev. 19:18) is among the most popular. But what does the verse mean? One wit suggested, “Love your neighbor as yourself, but choose your neighborhood.” Rabbi Akiba, the second-century Talmudic giant, argued that “Love your neighbor. . . .” is the foundation upon which the entire Torah depends. According to him, love is an inseparable component when maintaining relationships in a God-based community. It is through our love for God, and our desire to follow and understand God’s laws, that we are commanded to love our neighbor.

We welcome you to join us after services today for Kiddush sponsored by Jennifer and Joel Glaser in honor of the Bar Mitzvah celebration of their son, Jacob. Mazel Tov to Jacob and the Glaser family. We are also honoring all those celebrating their May birthdays with us today. Happy Birthday!
