Shabbat Parashat Hukat

Torah: Numbers 21:11 (page 890) read by
Cantor Melanie Fine

Haftorah: Judges 11:1 (page 909) chanted by Alan Sperling

Darshan: Alyssa Ganezer

Greeters: Deborah Berenbach and Marta Fuchs

While encamped at Kadesh-Barnea, both Miriam and Aaron die and are buried. Sometime after, as this week's Torah portion Hukat describes, the Israelites move on to the Wilderness of Zin where they find no water. During that brief episode in the travels and development of our people, Moses loses his patience. At once steadfast and faithful through all these years of trial and difficulty, Moses simply "snaps" and gives way to his anger, causing him to doubt—if for only a moment—God's power to fulfill His promise to His chosen people.

For many years, KM member Michael Frisch has been performing music that he has written, entirely inspired by the Judaic tradition. At the heart of the music are the stories, rituals, and spirituality that are a part of Judaism and the Land of Israel. The music is the unifying theme that tells us the story. Please join us for this enlightening evening. $5 donation.

TUESDAY, JULY 30 @ 6:30 PM

“Calling all musicians”, poets, and anyone else! Come collaborate with your KM community to create a one of a kind original melody to the L’cha Dodi.
