Services led by Rabbi Michael Gotlieb and
Cantor Samuel Cohen

PARASHAT D'VARIM

Torah: Deuteronomy 2:31 (page 994) read by
Cantor Melanie Fine

Haftorah: Isaiah 1:1 (page 999) chanted by
Marsha Lewin Latiner

Greeter: Lori Papernik

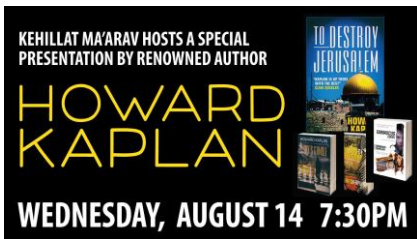

Fittingly, the last book of the Torah, D'varim, begins with the phrase: "These are the words." Revisiting what was covered earlier in the Torah, the book of Deuteronomy begins. The Torah is essentially a transcribed oral tradition. To our ancestors, words indicated the beginning of God's creative process. Though we are literate like no others in the history of humanity, words invoke in us that same creative process. May the words of our mouths continue to speak kindly and lovingly of God and our fellow human beings.

Please join us following services for Kiddush sponsored by Kirsten Turlo and Frank Laski in honor of the baby naming of their daughter, Sarah, and by Celeste and Hal Erdley in honor of their 67th Wedding Anniversary. Today we also would like to say Happy Birthday to all those celebrating with us today. Thank you to all.

Sponsor a Kiddush lunch to honor a special event or person in your life, celebrate an accomplishment, or for no special reason at all. It's a mitzvah that benefits you and your KM community. Call the KM office for availability.
