Understandably, life is thought of in terms of goals to be achieved. Graduate from school, find a spouse, pay off the mortgage, retire, etc. In this week's Torah portion, Mattot-Mas'ei, the people Israel provide for us a travel log of places where they've camped. A dizzying array of names that's exhausting to read, let alone make sense of. Why such detail? One reason suggests the value is found in the trip itself. In other words, getting there—wherever there may be—can be as important as arriving. The Torah teaches us that in our pursuit of “Promised Land,” let's not lose sight of the “promise” of the moment.

Please join us following services for Kiddush sponsored by an anonymous donor. Thank you.

As we enjoy our weekly time together, consider making our on Shabbat even more special by sponsoring a Kiddush for our community. Call the KM office for information.
