PARASHAT VAETHANNAN

The composer Igor Stravinsky once said, "To listen is an effort, and just to hear is of no merit. A duck also hears." Listening requires identification with the speaker; it brings one's entire focus into the moment. With the recitation of the Shema, which appears in this morning's Torah portion, our tradition calls on us to become active listeners. Active listeners to our children, our spouse, our friends, our colleagues, a stranger we happen to meet—let alone, need it be said, God.

Please join us for Kiddush sponsored by Beverly Schwartz in memory her husband, Elliot Schwartz. Thank you.

Support the warmth and friendship of our congregation by sponsoring a Shabbat Kiddush lunch. It's easy. Just call the KM office.
