PARASHAT HOL HAMO'ED

Sukkot: What a great holiday, what poor scheduling. For many of us Jews, we are simply “holiday’d-out.” The intensity and popularity of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur can eclipse the physical beauty and spiritual depth of Sukkot, simply because we’re tired. Ah, if only the holiday would occur later in the year. But, pilgrimage holidays (of which Sukkot is one) occur according to the season, not according to convenience. So, enjoy the holiday, even if you feel inundated by so many of them. Before you know it, you’ll be looking back on these days—wondering where the time had gone. Shabbat Shalom, Happy New Year, and Happy Sukkot!

Join us for Kiddush sponsored by Lou and Judy Zucker in honor of Lou’s 80th birthday. Happy Birthday to Lou and thank you to all.
