Dear Friends,

Welcome to Kehillat Ma'arav! We are delighted that you are interested in joining our synagogue family.

Kehillat Ma'arav (KM) is a Conservative congregation serving Santa Monica, the Westside and beyond. We're a caring, involved community that provides the religious, spiritual, educational, and social needs of our diverse membership.

Join us every Shabbat morning for an egalitarian, traditional service with our Bimah in the Round, led by Rabbi Michael Gotlieb and Cantor Samuel Cohen. On the first Friday of every month, we also offer a beautiful Kabbalat Shabbat service. Several times a year, we hold a unique program called Shabbat in "3-D" (Daven, 'Drash [Discuss] and Dine), through which we delve more deeply into Jewish life and tradition. For our youngest congregants, we boast an award winning, accredited religious school that offers an outstanding K-1 program, a grade 2-7 curriculum with plenty of ruach, as well as a variety of youth programs; the educational journey continues for adults with various offerings in Yiddish, Bible Study, healthy aging, fine wines (!) and many more.

Our creative holiday programming, including our annual Purim bash, truly provides meaningful, fun, and enriching experiences for members of all ages.

Included in this booklet you will find the following:

- The 2019 High Holy Day schedule
- Participation opportunities
- The Micah Society information
- Membership dues and Religious School tuition
- Commitment form
- Book of Remembrance and Memorial Plaque submission (on back page)

Our KM family invites you and your family to visit and experience our unique and vibrant community. We welcome you to join our congregation and help us continue to serve the Westside with pride and dignity. We look forward to seeing you.

Warmly,

Kate Flanagan
Executive Director

OUR MISSION

Kehillat Ma'arav is an egalitarian Conservative synagogue that embraces the religious, spiritual, social, and educational needs of its diverse membership.

WHO WE ARE

We're a congregation of approximately 300 families who truly embody the meaning of l'dor va dor, "from generation to generation."

"Do not separate yourself from the community."
Rabbi Hillel, Perkei Avot 2:5

We are the only Conservative synagogue in Santa Monica, yet the 39 zip codes in which our members live span far beyond Santa Monica's borders. We're a welcoming community where you won't get lost.

"Build me a community that I may dwell among you."

IN OUR WORDS

Harla and Pat Levitt – “Since we moved to LA in 2009, this has been the most welcoming experience for us, our children and our grandchildren. They all look forward to coming to Shul, which is all you want for your children.”

Barbara and Richard Levy – “KM has been such an open and welcoming community for us. After moving back to CA after living on the East Coast for 40 years we were worried that it would be hard to find and feel comfortable in a new shul community. Luckily for us, we found a home at KM.”

Michael and Susan Norman –

“I give here because this is how the Jewish people continue. Starting these kids here, with these activities (PJ Library), with their parents involved, it is so important that this be here.”

Mark and Connie Goldberg – “I was happy to see that we read the Torah in the midst of the congregation, not “far away” from us up on the bima. It is accessible and relevant. It puts into practice the verse from Deuteronomy 30:12, which states - “It is not in the heavens, for you to say, Who can ascend to the heavens for us and take it for us, and let us hear it, so that we can perform it?”

Sumena and Joshua Dunn – “PJ library has been so fun for Ryan and at the same time he learned about Jewish traditions. He enjoys making the crafts.”

Wendy and Woody Woodhall
– “Step into the synagogue on a Tuesday early evening and you can’t help but be overcome by the warmth and energy of this first class educational program in action. ”

Eric and JoJo Fleiss – “PJ Library has been an incredible continuation of the great religious education our children receive at KM. We look forward to the wonderful PJ events at KM the first Shabbat of every month!”

Sue and Paul Hoffman – “We came and stayed because of the community
- our extended family.”

Andrew and Tally Lippman – “KM is a shining example of what a synagogue should represent: commitment from its members and a dedication to passing down the values of Judaism to the next generation through volunteering and creating a sense of community.”

Karen Gottlieb – “KM -where I have found my Jewish home - spiritually, emotionally and socially.”

Minda and Jeff Salberg – “We love KM because the Rabbi, Cantor and the administration make it a point to get to know each member personally and they established a culture of caring and kindness among the congregation where everyone matters.”

Mimi Klein - “Being part of the KM Community always means a warm welcome.”

Linda & Barry Zwang Weissman
– “Kehillat Ma’arav is Tradition, Family, and Haverim.”

Lew and Eileen Goldberg - “Kehillat Ma’arav is not only ‘Our Shul’, it is Family, Warm, Loving & Caring!!”
