

KEHILLAT MA'ARAV WELCOMES YOU TO SHABBAT SERVICES

SHABBAT SHALOM

November 23, 2019 / 25 Heshvan 5780

Services: Led by Rabbi Michael Gotlieb and Cantor Samuel Cohen

Torah: Genesis 24:53 (page 137) read by
Cantor Melanie Fine

Haftorah: 1 Kings 1:1 (page 142) read by Mark Goldberg

Greeters: Larry Israel and David Oberman

PARASHAT HAYYEI SARAH

This morning's Torah portion concerns itself with "earthly" matters. It begins with Sarah's death and concludes with Abraham's. In between those sad, but inevitable events, the Torah shifts its focus: its primary concern is getting Isaac a wife. Not just any wife, but a woman who identifies with Isaac's Jewish mission, a divine mission inspired by his parents, and ultimately God.

Join us for Kiddush after services. Kiddush lunch is a tradition of warmth, friendship, and love of Shabbat, one which we depend on the generosity of members to support. To sponsor, just call the office. Thank you.

COMING SOON

COMMUNITY-WIDE MITZVAH PROGRAM HANUKKAH ANGELS

Please join us in a community Mitzvah program. Once again, our Religious School is heading up a Community-Wide Hanukkah Gift Drive for Chai Lifeline Hanukkah Angels. What it is: Chai Lifeline is a chance for you and your family to become a Hanukkah Angel and adopt one of 10 children with a serious life-threatening illness and their family. As a Hanukkah Angel, you and your family will shop for gifts from a child's wish list (which we provide). Please bring all unwrapped gifts to KM Sunday, December 8, at 9 am, for our community-wide gift wrapping program. If you cannot attend, please bring your unwrapped gift to KM by Friday, December 6. For more information, Sharone Weizman at eddirector@km-synagogue.org.

COMMUNITY-WIDE OHR L'OLAM - DECEMBER 8

From 11:30 am-12:30 pm we invite our community members to join our Religious School students in wrapping all the gifts and writing Hanukkah cards to our Chai Lifeline children. We will also enjoy latkas from our cooking class and sufganiot.

TIKKUN OLAM/SOCIAL ACTION KICK-OFF BREAKFAST AND BRAINSTORMING SESSION - DECEMBER 8 @ 10 AM

Together, we can do good deeds. Let's share ideas for both congregational and community-wide projects. Free and open to all ages. RSVP to office@km-synagogue.org or call the KM office at (310) 829-0566.
