Barbara Levy

Greeters: Beverly and Bernie Bienstock

Last week, we read of seven plagues. In this morning's Torah portion, Parashat Bo, we learn of the remaining three. The devastation of the remaining plagues finally forces Pharaoh to relent; the Israelites are at last free. In anticipation of their leaving, they celebrate their first Passover. That celebration, while still in Egypt, will end up shaping our annual celebration of that blessed day for generations to come.

Join us for Kiddush after services, sponsored by Sonia Sabban in memory of her husband, Raffi Sabban. Thank you.

Kiddush lunch is a tradition of warmth, friendship, and love of Shabbat, one which we depend on the generosity of members to support. To sponsor, just call the office.
