Shabbat Parashat Yayiggash

This week's Torah reading, Vayiggash, gives insight into the power and importance of forgiveness. With the combination of God and good values, Joseph turns his fate into free will. While Joseph never actually says, "I forgive you," he does tell his brothers they need not revisit their earlier, evil behavior. To his credit, Joseph did not let the wicked actions of his brothers destroy him. He was able to move forward in life and achieve many important things. That and more awaits you in this morning's inspiring Torah reading.

Join us for Kiddush after services. Kiddush lunch is a tradition of warmth, friendship, and love of Shabbat, one which we depend on the generosity of members to support. To sponsor, call the KM office.
