This week's Torah portion, Parashat Mishpatim, is highly spiritual – how so? It deals with laws: laws of marriage, unemployment, financial practices and integrity. In an attempt to transform philosophy into action, Jewish law comes into play. By training ourselves to perform God's commandments, we tap into the Jewish world of spirituality. Commandments are anything but suggestions. They are the means to better the world and can draw us closer to our Creator.

Join us for Kiddush after services, sponsored by Gina Epstein in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of her son, Max Epstein. Mazel Tov to the Epstein family and thank you to all.
