

SHABBAT SHALOM

February 29, 2020 / 4 Adar 5780

Services: Led by Rabbi Michael Gotlieb and Cantor Samuel Cohen

Shabbat Parashat T'rumah

Torah: Exodus 25:1 (page 485) read by
Cantor Melanie Fine

Haftorah: 1 Kings 5:26 (page 499) chanted by George Goldberg

Greeters: David Oberman

This week's Torah portion, T'rumah, is an architect's dream. The Tabernacle, or Mishkon is described in great detail. Forty-five feet long, thirty-six feet high, and fifteen feet wide, at the rear of which was the Holy of Holies. God dwelled in the Tabernacle, but as our tradition has taught repeatedly, God is above the physical. Most importantly, God dwells wherever we are willing to let Him in, be it in our homes, offices, or most importantly, our hearts.

Join us for Kiddush sponsored by Judy and Ness Moadeb in honor of Rabbi Michael Gotlieb and Cantor Sam Cohen. We also wish a Happy Anniversary to all those celebrating with us today. Thank you to all.
