Dear Congregants,

I am thrilled to be writing you as the Interim Cantor of Kehillat Ma'arav. When I chose to become a cantor and enrolled at the Jewish Theological Seminary almost 30 years ago, I dreamed of serving a community that was like my second family, a community of like-minded people who loved Judaism as much as I did, who appreciated the gifts I had to bring, and brought me even more.

For many of us young and eager graduates, our early pulpits did not always meet our expectations. Few things do. Often, as a result, I would seek my spiritual and intellectual nourishment outside the community in which I served. This is one of the paradoxes facing many professional Jews.

I have loved being your Torah reader over the past six years. What I intended at first to be a part-time job has blossomed into the warm, welcoming, and spiritual home my son Max and I had been seeking. You have showered me with so much kavod (honor) over the years for my small contribution to the service, dayenu. It has been more than enough.

I am saddened by the resignation of our beloved and talented Cantor Sam. He has been the nefesh (soul) of KM. And I am honored to be given the sacred responsibility of being your interim cantor. I know I cannot replace all that Cantor Sam has brought to this congregation. Rather, my goal is to bring the best of me each and every day.

Two strengths that I bring to the pulpit are first and foremost, my vision for more inclusive Shabbat services. I believe we shine ever brighter the more members we involve in services, as Torah readers, Haftarah readers, daveners, singers, and English readers. If you would like to participate by doing any of these, Covid-permitting, please reach out to me. And, if you've always wanted to learn how to chant Torah or Haftarah, now's the time, even if you don't read Hebrew. Because, the second strength I bring is my decades of experience as an educator. More than my love for Judaism, is my love for teaching it. I hope you will allow me the opportunity to do so.

Please reach out to me with whatever you need.

May we go from strength to strength.

B'shalom v'hoda'ah,

Cantor Melanie Fine

MY KM: WHY I BELONG

STAN ZIEGLER

"...we're all very close-knit."

about a group of people getting together to start a new synagogue. Like the Zieglers, they didn't love all aspects of their current synagogues and were looking to create their own. "Sandy wanted me to go to a meeting, but since I was busy with tax season, I couldn't make it," he recalls. "I told her to go and if she thought it was worthwhile, then I'd go to the next meeting."

She thought the people were very warm and nice—a cornerstone of the Kehillat Ma'arav community even today—and the rest is history. They started out meeting

It was during a tax season when Stan, a CPA, came home to his now late-wife, Sandy, who told him in homes, then in the Brentwood Presbyterian Church. "To this day, every Thanksgiving we have a joint breakfast where we get together here one year and at the church the next to eat, share and sing songs."

Involved from the beginning as synagogue treasurer, Stan would often invite people to experience Kehillat Ma'arav. He introduced one client of his who loved it so much that he joined and became a major donor. "He gave an initial $1 million gift to the synagogue which went a long way for us to start searching for our building. In addition to his gift, he also helped pay off our mortgages," Stan shares.

One of Stan's favorite things about the synagogue after so many years is seeing the multiple generations together. "I've never been to a place where you find young and elderly people co-mingling so beautifully," he says. "Age doesn't mean a thing; we're all very close-knit."

JOIN KM IN SOCIAL ACTION!

WHY I CHOOSE TO DONATE BLOOD... by Alan Sperling

On January 30, KM will be holding a blood drive. It is very important that we get more than our goal of fifty donors. During these challenging times every pint helps save lives. This will be my forty ninth donation. I started a number of years ago when the Shul I was a member of in Columbia Maryland had its initial blood drive. I showed up because my good friend was running the event and I wanted to support him. The deed was done—I gave almost every time we had a drive. I waited six hours in line after 9/11 to donate. It feels good to donate. It gives you a sense of positivity. It is a Mitzvah.

And you get free treats —What else can you ask for?

Show up Jan. 30. It will make your day.

SAVE THE DATE TO SAVE A LIFE

Sunday, January 30, 2022
Mitzvah Day

The Kehillat Ma'arav Social Action Committee is pleased to announce that we have partnered with The American Red Cross to host a blood drive on Sunday, January 30, 2022. As the largest project in our evolving plans for a synagogue-wide Mitzvah Day, our Blood Drive will be a meaningful and life-saving day for so many.

We are committed to gathering a group of at least fifty (50) donors! If you've donated blood before, great—thank you for signing up again! If you are unsure about whether you are able to donate, the American Red Cross has a wealth of information to answers those musings. The truth is, more often than not, folks believe they are ineligible to donate, but they are absolutely fine to perform this life-saving mitzvah.

Visit the KM website, or see the weekly for more information. You can also call the Red Cross at (866) 236-3276 to find out if you are eligible to give.

There will be many opportunities to participate, even if you cannot donate blood. In the days ahead, we look forward to sharing information about donor outreach, financial contributions, and day-of hospitality for everyone who joins us onsite that day. Please contact Kate Flanagan at kateflanagan@km-synagogue.org to sign up to help, or if you have any questions.

OLD FASHIONED STUFFED CABBAGE ROLLS

INGREDIENTS:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 large cabbage | 1 1/2 teaspoons salt |
| 2 pounds lean ground beef | 1 teaspoon pepper |
| 2 medium to large onions | 2 cans tomato soup |
| 2 tablespoons canola or olive oil | 2 small bottles (individual serving sizes) tomato juice or vegetable cocktail (like
V8 juice) |
| 1 cup white or brown rice and 2 cups
water | 1 can or small carton chicken broth |
| 3 eggs | |

DIRECTIONS:

In the bag that you brought your cabbage home~place the cabbage in the freezer and leave for 12 hours or overnight. Remove and leave to thaw at room temperature. This will take awhile, so I often take it the night before the day I want to make the cabbage rolls. The leaves will be soft and easy to use without having to boil them.

In a small saucepan or a microwave safe covered dish cook the rice. Set aside to cool. The rice can be made the day ahead and kept chilled in the refrigerator overnight.

Chop the onions fine and sauté them slowly until they are golden brown~set aside to cool.

In a large bowl, break apart the ground beef, add the salt, pepper, eggs, onions and the rice. Mix together until combined using your hands.

Remove the leaves from the cabbage, cutting away the tough part closest to the core.

Spray your large casserole or two small casserole dishes with cooking spray.

Put about a 1/3 to 1/2 cup meat mixture at the bottom of the leaf and roll up...the meat amount varies depending on the size of the leaf...repeat until all the meat is used up.

In a large mixing bowl, combine the tomato soup, juice, and broth. Pour evenly over the cabbage rolls. Cover with foil or the lid.

Bake the cabbage rolls slowly at 325 for 2 hours. Serve or cool on the counter. Remove the foil (if you don't, you will have little bits of foil on your cabbage rolls where ever it touches.) Cover with plastic wrap and either refrigerate or freeze.

For reheating~thaw first if frozen. Remove the plastic wrap and cover with a lid or foil and just reheat in the oven for about an hour at 325.

Enjoy!

IN MEMORY OF

Wendy Zeitlin

(December 16, 1938 –
January 26, 2020)

Remembered by

Sharon, Matthew, and Jacob Zeitlin

In 1938, Wendy was born in the Bronx, New York. She was the youngest of 3 daughters of Morris and Celia Bier.

At the age of 14, she visited her sister Doris who moved to California with her husband and family and liked it so much, she never went back to New York. Her parents, who owned a candy store in the Bronx, and other sister followed her and they all made a wonderful life in California.

At the age of 17, she met Stanley Zeitlin, a native of Texas, but then living in Santa Monica. They married and had 2 children, Sharon and Steven. Wendy held many jobs, but her favorite and most meaningful was running a successful periodical company with Stanley, selling back-issue periodicals throughout the world. Together, they completed libraries and made scientific and medical periodicals available to others worldwide. They both retired and moved to Las Vegas, Nevada where they enjoyed living together for many years. Although Stanley died in 2008, Wendy continued to live there, traveling back and forth to Culver City to spend time with her daughter and 2 grandchildren, Matthew and Jacob, who she loved more than anything.

She told amazing stories, created exquisite art work, and loved animals, especially her 4 dogs. She died in 2020 at the age of 81. She is remembered for her beautiful heart, contagious laugh, kindness and generosity, and was loved by everyone who knew her. She is missed every day.
